As a Stanford undergraduate, she went door-to-door for Rep. Anna Eshoo, handing out VCR tapes of Eshoo discussing her candidacy. More recently, she volunteered for Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign and raised money for Democrats. But it wasn't until President Trump's victory that a 'shell-shocked' Jurvetson, a Los Altos Hills psychiatrist and the ex-wife of a prominent venture capital investor, found herself getting more deeply involved in politics: She gave $6.9 million to Democratic candidates and causes over the last two years, launching herself from obscurity to one of the top political donors in the country." ISSUES

COVID-19 Response

On April 30, 2020, Williams retweeted someone saying it was time to reconsider Gov. Abbott’s plan to reopen Texas.

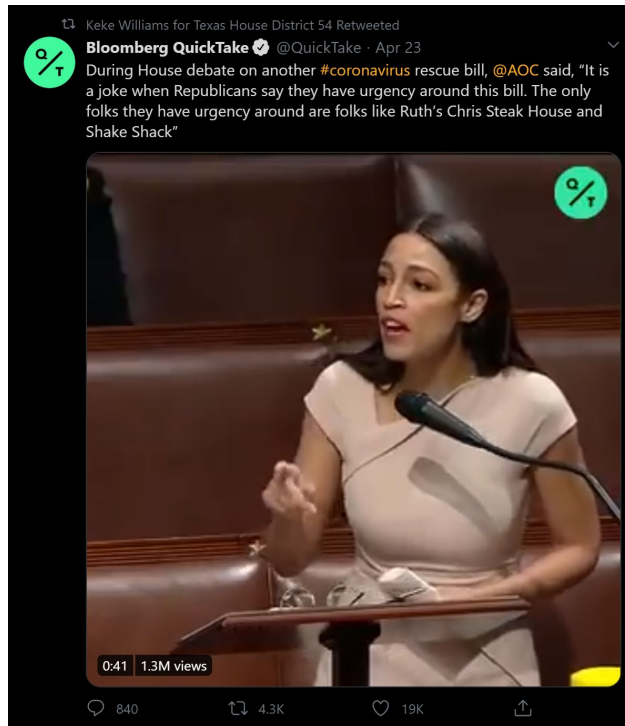

(Keke Williams for Texas House District 54, Twitter, 4/30/20)

In April 2020, Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-NY) criticized Republicans, claiming they cared more about helping big businesses rather than families, while debating a coronavirus relief package.

"Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-N.Y.) on Thursday accused Republicans of having more urgency to help large businesses than they do for families when drafting the next coronavirus relief package. 'It is a joke when Republicans say that they have urgency around this bill,' she said on the House floor. 'The only folks that they have urgency around are folks like Ruth's Chris Steak House and Shake Shack; those are the people getting assistance in this bill.'" (J. Edward Moreno, "Ocasio-Cortez: Republicans are prioritizing big chains in coronavirus relief," The Hill, 4/23/20)

- The House was voting on legislation to add $300 billion to replenish the small business loan program. "The House is set to vote Thursday on a bill that would provide more than $300 billion to replenish funding for small businesses amid the pandemic, with $60 billion earmarked for community banks and smaller lenders. The PPP was initially funded with $349 billion." (J. Edward Moreno, "Ocasio-Cortez: Republicans are prioritizing big chains in coronavirus relief," The Hill, 4/23/20)
- "The legislation being voted on also includes $75 billion for hospitals, $25 billion for testing and $60 billion for emergency disaster loans and grants." (J. Edward Moreno, "Ocasio-Cortez: Republicans are prioritizing big chains in coronavirus relief," The Hill, 4/23/20)
- Ocasio-Cortez was one of five representatives and the only Democrat to vote against the bill. (H.R. 266, Roll Call 104, Passed: 388-5, 4/23/20, Ocasio-Cortez Voted Yea)

Williams liked a tweet that said: "Instead of saying that someone is pro-life, I use the term anti-choice because I think it's pretty obvious by now that the anti-choice politicians don't give a damn about our lives."

(Keke Williams for Texas House District 54, Twitter, 3/24/20)

- Editor’s note: This tweet appears to have been deleted.

On her campaign website, Williams says the minimum wage needs to be raised.

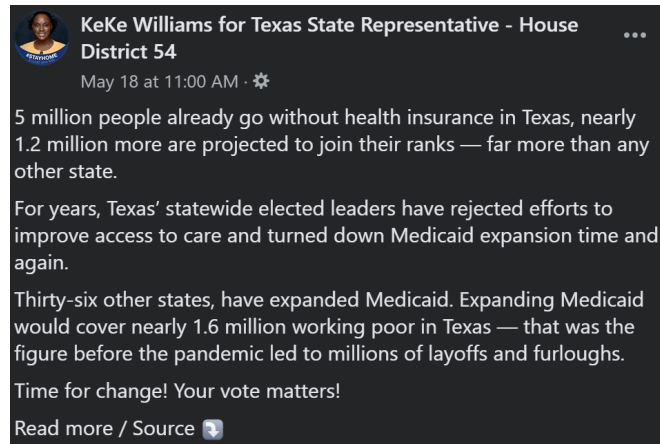

“Keke knows we need to raise the minimum wage so families can support themselves with one job instead of needing two or three to make ends meet. She also supports equal pay for women and paid family and medical leave for all families.” (“Priorities,” Keke For Texas, Accessed 8/12/20)

Education

On her campaign website, Williams says the state needs to pay “its fair share” of education funds to increase teacher salaries and full fund Pre-K. “She believes the state needs to pay its fair share of funding for public education, especially to increase teacher salaries and fully fund Pre-K throughout the state.” (“Priorities,” Keke For Texas, Accessed 8/12/20)

Healthcare

Williams appears to support Medicaid expansion.
